Antiques in Susquehanna County

Travelers have been coming to Susquehanna County, the 'Top of the Endless Mountains', for centuries. According to legend Native Americans made regular trips to a special place that today is known as Salt Springs State Park. They took great care to keep their source of precious salt a secret from other tribes. Early settlers were enticed to this area by the virgin forests, abundant supplies of pure water and healing herbs. We believe that you too will find our countryside refreshing and our shops inviting. And best of all, Susquehanna County is no longer a secret. We are conveniently located off Route 6 and Route I-81. We are about 25 miles from Binghamton, NY, 25 miles from Scranton, 125 miles from Philadelphia, 130 miles from New York City, and 75 miles from Allentown, Pa. We look forward to your visit..

Fall Festival Antique Tour

The way of nature and the efforts of the Antique Dealers Association of Susquehanna County have been combined to treat residents and visitors not only to the spectacular fall foliage that really premieres in the Endless Mountains, but also to an "Annual Fall Festival Antique Tour and Open House" held Columbus Day weekend in October. Interested parties may get more information by contacting any one of the shops on this brochure.

Our Antique Association

The antique dealers of Susquehanna County banded together to promote business and tourism. In a spirit of cooperation, we combine advertising and special events and offer hospitality to our visitors. We have a sense of pride in all that our region offers. To learn more about other sites, lodging, events, and attractions, contact the Endless Mountains Visitors Bureau:
